ABOUT RESONANCE

Uniting Voices Lexington is thrilled to present its inaugural fundraising event, Resonance, on Thursday, April 25 at The Loudoun House in Castlewood Park. This event celebrates the inspiration, inclusion and expression of the youth of Lexington. The evening will showcase the work of young singers and future leaders who have come together to make this movement a reality. Admission includes full event access, open bar, generous hors d'oeuvres, musical performances, and an opportunity to make a direct impact on the lives of the young people of the Bluegrass region.

ABOUT UNITING VOICES LEXINGTON

Uniting Voices Lexington empowers and unites youth from diverse backgrounds to find their voice and celebrate their common humanity through the power of music. The program is the first Uniting Voices chapter outside of Chicago. In the spirit of the Civil Rights Movement out of which Uniting Voices was founded, Uniting Voices Lexington develops programs that embrace the diversity of the Bluegrass region, making a transformative music education available to any young person, regardless of socioeconomic status.

ABOUT UNITING VOICES LEXINGTON'S ADVISORY BOARD

Resonance is hosted by members of the Uniting Voices Lexington Advisory Board, who work tirelessly to promote Uniting Voices Lexington's mission to inspire and change lives through music. Advisory board members are Sterling Crayton, Cindy Duerson, Jeremy Gillett, Chester Grundy, Judy Keitz, Janet Scott, Kristen LaRue Bond, and Kenny Trotter.
